

SCIP Sponsor Program

Specifications Consultants in Independent Practice (SCIP)

www.scip.com

Purpose: To accept contributions from donors to fund SCIP sponsored events, programs, professional promotions, and member benefits as determined by the SCIP Board of Directors.

Sponsor Benefits:

For Annual Donations Less than $1000

- Recognition in each edition of SCIPping Along, the SCIP newsletter, with company logo and company name
- Recognition at the annual member meeting, with company logo and name on the meeting agenda

For Annual Donations of $1000 and Greater

- Benefits named above and the following
- Recognition on the SCIP website with company logo and name on the home page of the website
- Display and distribution of promotional materials at the annual member meeting, similar to a tabletop or literature display

For Annual Donations of $2500 and Greater

- Benefits named above and the following
- Ten minutes to address members at the annual member meeting

SCIP is a 501(c)(6) nonprofit District of Columbia corporation. Sponsor donations may be tax deductible. Check with your accounting professional. The SCIP Board of Directors, in consultation with the members, will decide how all sponsor donations will be used. Information about how donations are used will be provided to sponsors upon request.

Sponsorship annual renewal date is the day following each SCIP annual meeting. Sponsors providing donations after the SCIP annual meeting will receive all appropriate benefits immediately, extending through the next annual meeting.

The SCIP annual member meeting is scheduled to immediately precede the CONSTRUCT Show each year. See <http://constructshow.com/> for show schedule.